When the subject was suggested to Mr. Gibbons several weeks ago he showed decided opposition. He thought his daughter was joking when she suggested taking up the duties of a Salvtaion Army lassie.

While not a society girl in the strict sense of the word, Miss Gibbons has all her life had plenty of money and moved in the best society in her town, which has something of a reputation as a pleasure resort. The girl is just past her twenty-first birthday, has heavy dark brown huir and brown eyes and her manner is attractive.

"I am afraid father will be angry," said Miss Gibbons this avening. "I have kept putting off writing to him about my decision, for I know he does not understand the army work and thinks that every one in it is crazy.

"When he learns how earnest I am in the work, however, and how giad I am to try to do some good after living an idle life, I think he will forgive me."

Miss Gibbons was sworn in yesterday evening at a special meeting held by the German branch of the Salvation Army at No. 17 West Gerard Avenue.

With Miss Gibbons under the crossed banners of the army, where they were sworn in as soldiers, were a former bartender and two former followers of Dowle? The girl in her new uniform held the attention of the crowd, as some rumors of her story had been circulated, and there was loud applause as the insignia of the army was pinned to the collar of her uniform by Charles Miles, of Now York, who had charge of the meeting. Would be pleased to receive the ac-counts of corporations, firms and indi-viduals.

LENOX, MASS., August 2.—A cruzy man visited the summer home of Sir Henry Mortimer Durand, the Brilish ambassador yesterday, and demanded money. The man was a stranger in Lenox, but had learned who lived at the cottage. His request was refused, and he made a scene in which he roundly denounced wealthy men and praised the assassin of M. Piehve.

He was escorted from the grounds, and

INDICTED MAN SHOOTS DOWN HIS PROSECUTOR

MANIAC AT COTTAGE

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
MERIDIAN, MISS., August 3.—Thomas M. Tann, prosecuting attorney for Kemper county, was shot and killed yesterday at Dokaib, the county seat, by Irving Henderson, a prominent young planter. The shooting grew out of one of the negro peonage cases pending here in the Federal Court.

Henderson and Tann met in the principal street of Dekaib. The planter is under indistment for the alleged kidnapping of a negro and a reud had started in the county because of the aggressiveness of the prosecuting attorney in bringing Henderson and several other planters to trial on the charge.

When the two men met in the street Henderson drew a revolver and began fring at Tann. At the first shot the attorney fell with a builet through his heart, Henderson was arrested. He says he acted in self-defense.

WAS MRS. MAYBRICK, MERCHANTS AND MINERS THOUGHT MARIE WAINWRIGHT

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

NEW YORK, Aug. 3.—Miss Marie Wainwright, the English actress, returned yesterday from England on the Minnehaha. When she appeared at the gangplank, her face concealed by the voluminous folds of some half score vells of different textures and lints, her press agent whispered loudly enough to be heard a block:

"There she is, now." "Pipe off the woman with all those volls. That's Miss Maybrick, She is wearing all those thinss around her hat so she won't be recognized."

"A lot of horrid passengers said that was Miss Maybrick," said the actress.

around her hat so she want be feesy nized."

"A lot of horrid passengers said that I was Mrs. Maybrick." said the actress. "You'see, I always wear these veils when I'm traveling to avoid publicity, and when they could not see my face some horrid person started that ayful slory. Finally some horrid woman had the impertisence to come up to me and want to know who I was. You see, I was hooked under my real name. Mrs. Franklin Roberts, and no one recognized it. Of course, if I had used my stage name every one would have known me, and all this trouble would not have courred."

NEW YORK, Aug. 3,—Speculative activity in stocks continued light to-day, but such interest as there was was shifted in a pronounced way to stocks of railroads whose traffic is largely made up of cotton. This was not surprising in view of the character of the reports of the Agricultural Department on the con-dition of the cotton crop on July 251 which made its appearance at noon to day and which presented a situation with out precedent in the history of the cotton

REPORT WAS

The average condition of M.6 per cent, has never been exceeded, except at the corresponding period in 180, when M.8 per cent, was reported. Add to this the fact that the 32,000,000 acres planted this year is much the largest on record, and the sensational view of the report taken by the speculative markets will be underthe sensational view of the report taken by the speculative markets will be understood. In the cotton market, litself there was some very determined support by free buying or the large offerings, it was considered also that a large short interest was disposed to cover on the publication of the report in the belief that the heaviest seiling would be induced by its first cheet. There were some other factors which caused special attention to be given to stocks of railroads in one Southern territory. One was the annual report of the Southern Railway Company, published over-night, which disclosed the most propagoon year in the history of the present company, Furthermore the Central of Georgia Railroad Company, affiliated with the Southern Railway Companyan, nonunced an interest payment of 2 per cent, on the second preference incomes honds, the first ever oald on that security, besides the full 5 per cent, allowed to the first preference incomes. The movement in Tennessee Coni and Iron may have been an added factor in the case of Louisville and Nasiville, owing to the implied improvement in the Southern iron industry.

Bonds of Southern Railway shared in some of the general speculation in stocks, now-cver, continued markedly conservative, in spite of the symputhetic effect of the advance in the cotton carriers. Southern Pacific's rise was the only instance of include strength in the general ist and was unexplained by news. The market closed rather heavy at some recessions. Central of Georgia first preference incomes advanced 21-2, the seconds 17-8 and the thirds 21-2.

The bond market generally was duil, but firm. Total sales, par value, $2,000,000. United States bonds were unchanged on call.

The total sales of stocks for the day were 245,400 shares.
